COMMON ALTITUDE

OFFICE OF THE IMPOSSIBLE
An invitation to help shape a new Denver art fair.

ORIGINAL CONCEPT GRAPHIC

A proposed Denver art fair

Artists and galleries would present work for sale alongside commissions and free public programs.

- Proposed August 9–15, 2027.
- Free core art discovery across a carefully approved site.
- Participation, venue and dates remain unconfirmed.

Three types of art presentation

Artists and curators develop their own work within the event theme.

Gallery rooms

Edited presentations with trusted sellers and excellent information.

Artist salons

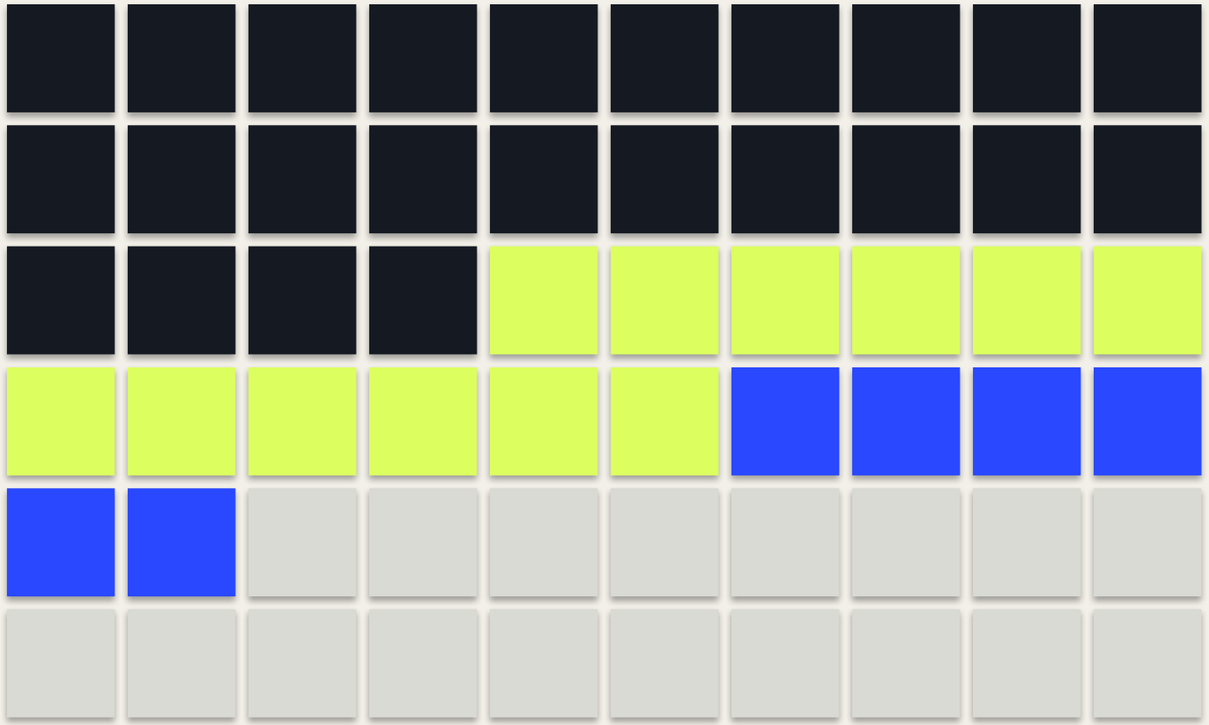

Paid, supported direct-artist spaces with clear seller authority.

Signature works

Funded commissions/loans sized to actual site and budget.

Proposed allocation of 60 spaces

A survey and site approval must establish how these functions fit.

24 Gallery presentations

12 Direct-artist salons

6 Signature briefs

18 Learning, common and support

PROPOSED PROGRAM FUNCTIONS / SITE SURVEY PENDING

Artist fees and sale proceeds

The proposal charges zero organizer art commission and budgets pay for commissioned work.

Seller proceeds

The seller receives sale proceeds and discloses representation, tax and external costs.

Paid work

Pay for commissions, teaching and direct-artist work through funded contracts.

Fair selection

Payment does not purchase curatorial inclusion or favorable interpretation.

Optional gallery services

Define the deliverables and refund terms, then test whether galleries will buy the package.

$7,500

Proposed service-package price

24

Package-purchase assumption. Demand remains unknown

0%

Proposed organizer art commission

Direct-artist salons and stipends

These fee budgets need accepted scopes and funding before any commission.

12

Direct-artist salons

$30,000

Combined salon stipend envelope

$200,000

Total artist/program-fee envelope

Catalog and buyer targets

Confirm seller authority, image rights and stock before publishing work.

300

Cleared saleable work-record target

600

Qualified collector-household target

$3m

Completed art GMV target

Preview, public and learning programs

The proposed week gives buyers appointment time and visitors free access to core art.

PREVIEW

Advisers, artist/seller orientation and press.

PUBLIC DAYS

Free core art, conversation and informed acquisition.

MAKING + EVENINGS

Paid educators and artist-authored special programs.

Artwork care and seller service

The producer, registrar and seller must agree each responsibility.

Before

Rights, condition, value, packing, rider and installation.

During

Accurate availability, human help and seller-led transactions.

After

Controlled release, delivery support and completion records.

Artist rights and selection rules

Researching a name grants no rights or participation commitment.

Authorship

Artist-led brief and approved interpretation.

Licensing

Specific channels, crops, recording, credits and expiry.

Conflicts

Disclosed representation and selection recusals.

Partner invitation sequence

Secure authority and funds before taking deposits, accepting work or announcing participation.

NOW

Scoped feasibility and value testing.

SOON

Conditional room/seller proposals.

MIDDLE

Funded work/loan/commission agreements.

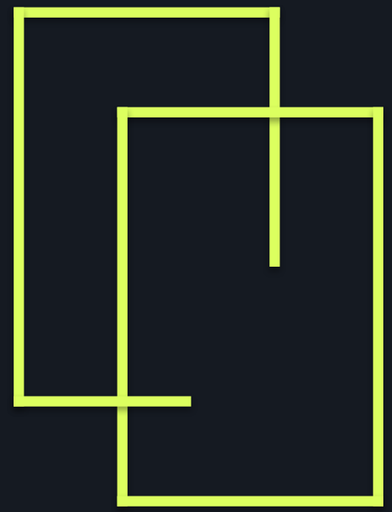

LATER

Cleared catalogue, installation and service rehearsal.

Room and artwork proposals

A paid or appropriately scoped discussion would establish work, terms and delivery needs.

- Tell us the work, buyer and practical conditions that matter.
- Develop an artist-led presentation with clear economics.
- Agree rights, responsibilities and funding before public inclusion.

Candidate research and status

The project has contacted none of the 72 researched candidates.

The document repository lists official artist, gallery and institution sources.

Image rights, inventory, fees and availability require direct agreement.

Venue/date and operating economics remain proposal assumptions.