COMMON ALTITUDE

A COLLECTOR CONVERSATION
Proposed Denver Art Fair & Exhibition, August 2027

ORIGINAL CONCEPT GRAPHIC

Art selection and buying service

The proposal combines selected gallery and artist presentations with human acquisition support.

- An edited set of gallery and artist presentations.
- Rooms for work, with readable labels and clear routes.
- A staff contact for appointments, seller questions and delivery follow-up.

Reasons to visit Denver

Buyer interviews must establish demand. The project has no confirmed roster or available work.

Quality

Specific artists and works selected by an accountable curator.

Access

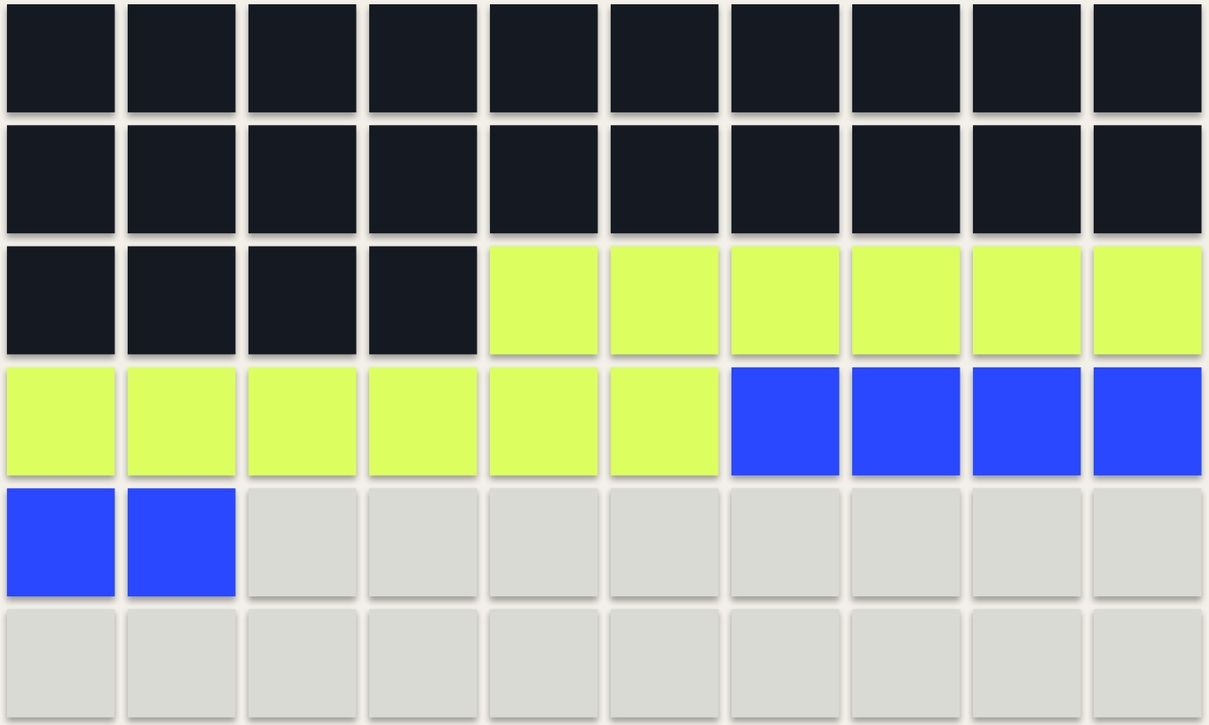

Useful artist/gallery appointments and relevant context.

Confidence

Clear information, seller authority, price and delivery.

Proposed rooms and catalog

The 60-space concept needs a site survey and owner approval.

24 Gallery presentation targets

12 Direct-artist salon targets

6 Artist-authored signature briefs

300 Cleared saleable record target

PROPOSED PROGRAM FUNCTIONS / SITE SURVEY PENDING

Signature commission ideas

Artists would develop these briefs through funded agreements. No famous work has a booking.

Perception

An artist-authored room exploring perception.

Material + memory

Work responding to office materials and the history of the site.

Public imagination

Paid local artists and free public access.

Purchase information and delivery

Actual seller agreements govern every sale.

Before

Accurate whole-work image, size, medium, seller and current availability.

During

An informed conversation and clear full-cost seller quote/invoice.

After

Condition, receipt/title information and delivery/install support.

Collector privacy

Ask permission for preferences and appointments. Limit staff access to the records they need.

- No sale of collector identities to sponsors or the landlord.
- Optional real-estate interest is a separate choice.
- No AI authenticity or investment-return promises.

Proposed travel week

Wait for venue and date confirmation before booking travel.

MON–TUE

Professional/collector previews and appointments.

WED–SUN

Free core art discovery and public programming.

BEYOND

Appropriate follow-up viewing and seller support.

Free access and optional paid programs

Core art discovery needs no premium purchase. Guides and workshops may charge separately.

Free discovery

Core art does not require a premium guide.

Optional depth

Optional guides and workshops may charge separate fees.

Useful help

Clear access information and a human contact.

Collector research questions

Ask about actual interests, practical needs and buying support.

Interests

Artists/media/ideas you want to encounter.

Practical needs

Time, travel, access and appointment preferences.

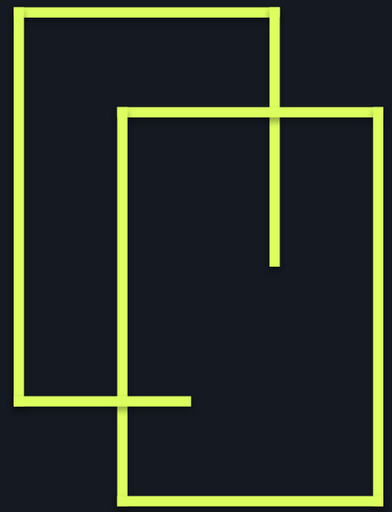

Buying support

Information and service needed for a confident decision.

Expression of interest

Interest creates no reservation, purchase obligation or artwork allocation.

- Consider an appropriate discovery conversation.
- Review confirmed artists/work only after permission and availability checks.
- Make travel or purchase decisions on verified information.

Sources and current status

The project guarantees no inventory, appearance, venue, date or gallery participation.

Official research sources and the detailed business/service plan accompany the proposal.

The deck uses original concept graphics. It reproduces no named artist’s work.

Actual confirmed works, rights and seller terms belong in a later release catalogue.