COMMON ALTITUDE

OFFICE OF THE IMPOSSIBLE
An invitation to help shape a new Denver art fair.

ORIGINAL CONCEPT GRAPHIC

A remarkable place to look.
A useful place to sell.

An artist-led exhibition and a serious acquisition market, with a generous public welcome.

Proposed August 9–15, 2027.

Free core art discovery across a carefully approved site.

Participation, venue and dates remain unconfirmed.

A room should have a point of view.

The theme is a framework for authorship, not a request to imitate a famous installation.

Gallery rooms

Edited presentations with trusted sellers and excellent information.

Artist salons

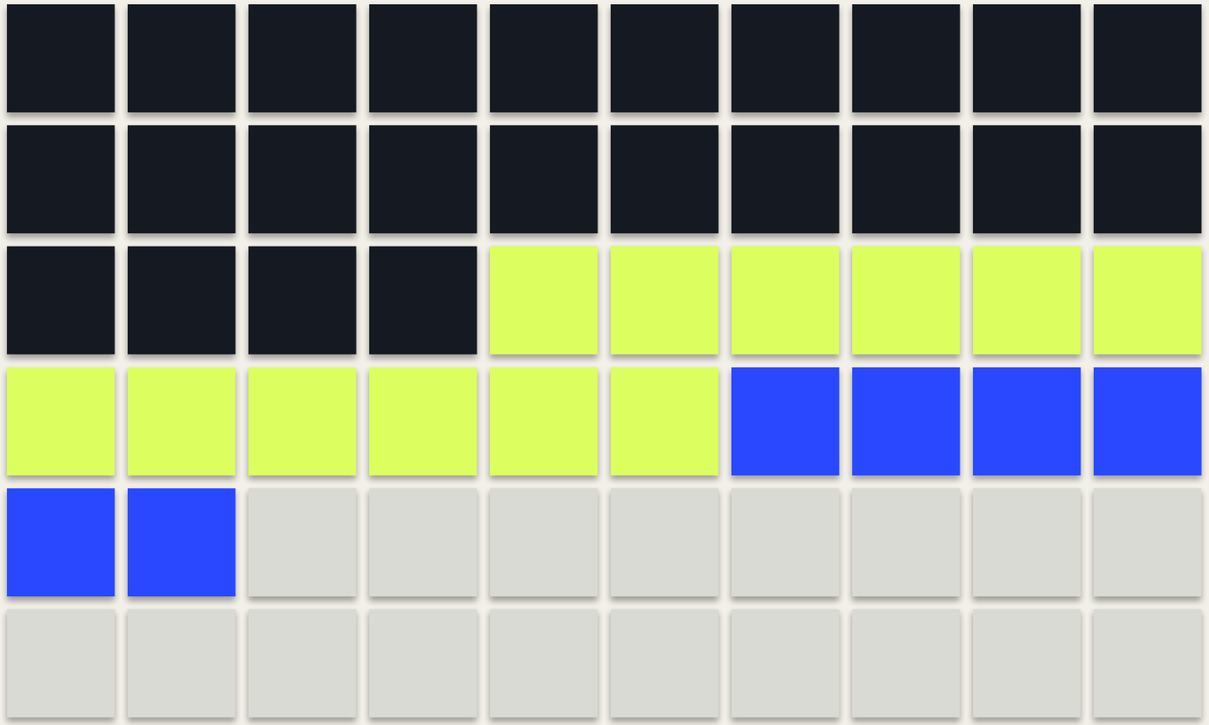

Paid, supported direct-artist spaces with clear seller authority.

Signature works

Funded commissions/loans sized to actual site and budget.

A proposed 60-space edition.

The functional inventory will be adapted to a surveyed approved footprint.

24 Gallery presentations

12 Direct-artist salons

6 Signature briefs

18 Learning, common and support

CONCEPTUAL FUNCTION GRID / NOT A SURVEYED FLOOR PLAN

Artist economics in plain language.

No organizer art commission is assumed in the proposal.

Seller proceeds

Sales remain with the authorized seller; representation, tax and external costs are disclosed.

Paid work

Commissions, teaching and direct-artist scopes are funded contracts, not exposure promises.

Fair selection

Payment does not purchase curatorial inclusion or favorable interpretation.

A gallery-service offer to test.

Optional paid services require a specific value proposition and agreed refund/earning terms.

$7,500

Illustrative premium-service package

Build a purchase-ready catalogue.

Targets depend on signed seller authority, rights and real inventory.

300

Cleared saleable work-record target

600

Qualified collector-household target

$3m

Completed art GMV target

Public culture and serious looking.

A proposed seven-day rhythm supports professional attention and broader discovery.

PREVIEW

Advisers, artist/seller orientation and press.

PUBLIC DAYS

Free core art, conversation and informed acquisition.

MAKING + EVENINGS

Paid educators and artist-authored special programs.

Make the service worthy of the work.

The producer/registrar/seller agreement defines responsibility.

Before

Rights, condition, value, packing, rider and installation.

During

Accurate availability, human help and seller-led transactions.

After

Controlled release, delivery support and completion records.

Rights and independence.

Nothing is acquired by placing a name on a research list.

Authorship

Artist-led brief and approved interpretation.

Licensing

Specific channels, crops, recording, credits and expiry.

Conflicts

Disclosed representation and selection recusals.

A staged invitation.

No deposits, artwork custody or public announcement before the relevant authority and funding.

NOW

Scoped feasibility and value testing.

SOON

Conditional room/seller proposals.

MIDDLE

Funded work/loan/commission agreements.

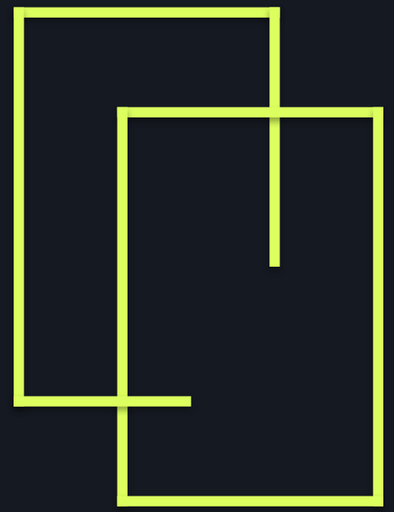

LATER

Cleared catalogue, installation and service rehearsal.

Consider a specific proposition.

The next step is a scoped discussion, followed by a conditional room/work proposal if there is a fit.

- Tell us the work, buyer and practical conditions that matter.
- Develop an artist-led presentation with clear economics.
- Agree rights, responsibilities and funding before public inclusion.

Research is not a roster.

72 geographically organized candidates inform the proposal; none is represented here as a committed partner.

Official artist/gallery/institution sources are indexed in the document repository.

Image rights, inventory, fees and availability require direct agreement.

Venue/date and operating economics remain proposal assumptions.
