COMMON ALTITUDE

FOUNDING DISCOVERY UNDERWRITING

Fund a disciplined path from ambition to a decision.

ORIGINAL CONCEPT GRAPHIC

Three outcomes worth backing.

A cultural event should create value beyond its opening photograph.

Artist income

Completed sales and paid creative work.

Public discovery

A generous encounter with art across backgrounds and budgets.

A credible destination

An excellent experience with accountable delivery.

First, fund the evidence.

A bounded paid-discovery target, credited once within later sponsorship if agreed.

$75,000

Total underwriting target

$70,000

Defined professional work

$5,000

Discovery reserve

What the first commitment buys.

No unconditional promise to launch.

Site + delivery

Owner/code/producer feasibility and scope alternatives.

Market + art

Qualified buyer research and realistic seller/artist proposition.

Finance + brand

Quote/cash plan, rights/contract issues and a coherent presentation system.

A useful decision in six weeks.

Specific deliverables and milestone acceptance govern the paid scope.

DISCOVER

Access, phasing, professional roles and evidence.

TEST

Audience, creative propositions and commercial fit.

PRICE

Production, cash restrictions and cancellation exposure.

DECIDE

Proceed, resize, relocate or stop.

The larger capital path.

Core scenario assumptions, not funded commitments.

$1.25m

Cash sponsorship target

$1,550,000

Core cost envelope

$600,000

Facility/backstop ceiling to investigate

The market target.

Art GMV is seller money and does not finance the event.

$3m

Completed art-sales target

150

Assumed purchasing households

$20,000

Average completed order assumption

Pay the people doing the work.

Defined fees and scope first; appropriate upside can be additional.

Core delivery

$260,000 later core-team envelope.

Creative contribution

$200,000 artist/program-fee envelope.

Fair terms

Classification, rights, milestones, cancellation and accepted hours.

Why this host could matter.

Space and creative ambition meet a rental/office redevelopment strategy.

Useful activation

Public cultural identity and appropriate qualified interest.

Bounded footprint

Construction, tenants and approved use control the site.

Transparent economics

No undefined share of artwork seller proceeds.

Do not confuse surplus with cash.

Illustrative core model before actual contracts, tax and claims.

$1,815,000	Organizer revenue
$1,550,000	Cost envelope
$265,000	Before owner / tax / reserves
$530,000	Peak preopening bridge sensitivity

Controls before scale.

No grants or celebrity participation are required assumptions.

Evidence gates

Stop/rescope if site, demand or finance fails.

Protected funds

Seller, tax, refund and restricted balances stay protected.

Independent roles

Producer, finance and qualified specialists challenge assumptions.

Know what happens next.

Project day one is November 1, 2026; the event week remains proposed.

NOV

Funded discovery decision.

DEC–JAN

Site and delivery organization.

MAR

Launch decision on evidence and funding.

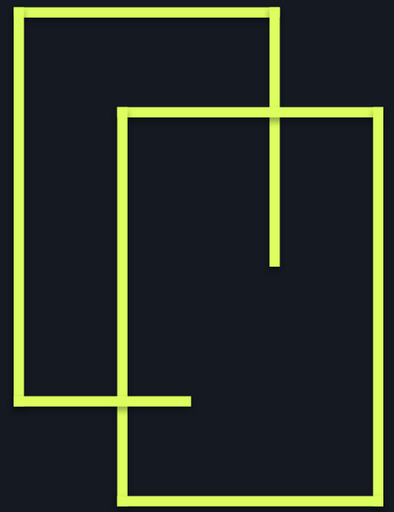

AUG

Open only if required conditions pass.

Underwrite a defined decision.

Discuss a $75,000 milestone-based discovery contract, with clear deliverables and stop terms.

- No implied investment return or tax-deductible donation.
- No forced launch if feasibility fails.
- Later sponsorship credit and recognition only as agreed.

A transparent proposal.

Market, venue and candidate research is sourced; demand, costs and all commercial terms remain unvalidated.
